Designer Profile...

LAILA UISKA

Laila Uiska is an artist as well as a designer. Each unique work of art has a special added value as only one or two of each design is created – enabling you to have a unique creation. Every item is handmade and handpainted.

To become a part of her unique art, visit her website www.lailauiska.com

LIA COHEN

In a world where fashion seems more disposable than ever, emerging designer brand LIA COHEN creates timeless wardrobe pieces that can be passed on through generations, beautiful clothes that will remain in a woman's closet for years to come. This year for the first time in the month of September, the brand will show their SS18 collection at

CAPSULE during Market Week in NYC. Visit www.liacohen.com or contact maria@liacohen.com

GIGI MONTROSE

Gigi Montrose Moto Couture is a unique line of women's functional and fashionable motorcycle apparel. The focus is in the function and technical design built specifically for a woman's body necessary for comfort, performance and safety. Creating an individual identity for women motorcyclist. Style built for the ride. Visit www.gigimontrose.com for more information. Photo credit Travis Shinn and model Summer Moon-Levine.

MOURJJAN OF SWITZERLAND

Mourjjan of Switzerland came to fruition from the visions of Roland Rahal and Michael Muntinga. Based in Zurich and Mykonos, their joint passion for fashion and nature culminates into luxurious silk pieces which draw on the wilderness. The East meets West in a combination of the Orient and the art and colours of the Dutch masters. Their designs are printed onto raw silk to create a world of unexpected and wondrous beauty. Shop the full collection at www.mourjjan.com

NENSI DOJAKA

Nensi Dojaka's designs are very feminine and delicate but with bold details, misplaced lines and seams. The use of sheer fabrics to create layers and the continuation of lines through these layers, create a surreal feel to the collection. The main goal is to repaint the image of women; showing both sides: the vulnerability, but mainly the strength that characterises them. Visit nensidojaka.com or email: dojakanensi@gmail.com for more information.

NG MOSCOW

NG MOSCOW is a luxury, family run fashion brand based in Moscow, Russia. They design and create unique clothing for contemporary and sophisticated women that really want to stand out. Visit www.ng-moscow.com to view their collection or follow on Instagram @ng_moscow.onlineshop

RAMI AL ALI

Rami Al Ali specialises in creating innovative designs through unique craftsmanship. Each collection is a true reflection of the brand's DNA, showcasing a fusion of cultural aesthetics; subtly coordinating a blend of East meets West. Using only the finest materials, each design exhibits glamour at its very best. Discover more at www.ramialali.com

RAMONAERB

Ramona Erb graduated from ESMOD Berlin using fashion to show her political beliefs. Her collection "Shapes Of Suffering" is a mix of an artist collaboration and her own art project with minor male refugees, who escaped from Syria, Iran etc without parents. Out of these war experiences came this beautiful Heart print. Visit www.ramonaerb.com email info@ramonaerb.com

RAWAN MAKI

Rawan Maki FW17 "Waves of the Future" is inspired by the interaction of humans with the natural and built environment. This London-based designer combines environmental engineering with fashion design and creates each piece as a "system", both aesthetically and in terms of design. In July, "Waves of the Future" will be showing in Berlin, culminating in a "Fashion X Art" soiree with Anahita – Arts of Asia on July 7th. Rawan Maki will host a VIP launch party in London on August 4 for a "first look" and "first fit", attended through RSVP at info@rawanmaki.com Visit www.rawanmaki.com

ROSEANNA CRAWFORD

Roseanna Crawford, graduated with a First Class Honours in Textile Art, Design and Fashion in 2016, her talents have no boundaries. The PF17 collections use a mix of silver and metallic shades, pops of moody reds, pinks and explosive orange. Each piece beautifully merging the British seasons into something special. A unique designer that we are really excited about.
